

play on your
field of dreams...

with Corporate Football Ltd.

CORPORATE | FOOTBALL

the crowd are on the pitch...

Given the opportunity, most of us would have liked to have played professional sport for our living. Unfortunately few of us were blessed with the skills necessary to achieve that ambition.

For those who have played the game and for those still playing, it is hard not to sometimes allow our imagination to run away with us and to wonder what it would be like to run out of the tunnel at Anfield or Molineux and play on our field of dreams.

get your shooting
boots on

Corporate Football Ltd is now offering you the chance to play football on your own 'Field of Dreams' and turn your dreams into a reality. Footballcv.com and footballcvtrials.com are leading companies within the football industry who arrange trials for young players throughout the country and work with the Professional Footballers Association and the top clubs in the country.

Corporate Football Ltd is a subsidiary company formed to ensure your company and guests have a day out to remember.

We will provide companies with the full match day experience. Our business is to meet with you and tailor the day to suit your requirements. If it is just football you want, then we can host the occasion. We want this to be a day for you and your work colleagues and friends to remember.

- We will provide companies with the full match day experience.
- Our business is to meet with you and tailor the day to suit your requirements.
- If it is just football you want, then we can host the occasion.

make your own
piece of history

"We want this to be a day for you and your work colleagues and friends to remember."

Graham Starmer, Managing Director
Corporate Football Ltd

